

Thursday, 22 March 2018. 1600-1800. Reception, museum tour, film presentation

Friday, 23 March 2018 0800-1800. Sessions 1-6.

Saturday, 24 March 2014 0800-1630. Sessions 7-12.

<http://www.ameddmuseumfoundation.org/>

Session	Presenters	Topics
Friday, 23 March 2018
1A 0800-0930	Starting with the Patient Jennifer Lawrence Jonathan Black	Medicine and the Great War C.R.W. Nevinson and The Realm of Pain, 1914-19
1B 0800-0930	Mobilizing American Medicine Lance Steahly Charles van Way	General Leonard Wood and Medical Preparedness Mobilizing for War
2A 0930-1100	Doctors in Wartime Johannes Allert Paula Summerly, Dwayne Jones	“Dr. Nellie” – A Physician’s Experience in the Great War Galveston’s World War I Doctors
2B 0930-1100	Affiliated Hospitals go to war Michael Trotter Richard Prior, Kimberly Mullins	Medical Patriotism: The University Units and Base Hospitals Base Hospital No. 25 from Cincinnati
3A 1100-1230	Aviation Medicine Chuck Fisher Robert Oliver	WWI and the Genesis of American Aviation Medicine Aviation Medicine in the AEF
3B 1100-1230	Battlefield Medicine George Thompson Leo Daugherty	The Golden Hour: American Battlefield Medicine in World War I “To the Front” U.S. Navy Corpsmen and Field Combat Operations with the Marines
Lunch 1230-1330
4A 1330-1500	Surgery Gerald Stulc Lars Aaning	Abdominal Surgery in the First World War Spleen Surgery in the First World War
4B 1330-1500	Medical Support of the Big Red One Jose Nieves, Kathleen Stack Donald Hall	1st Division and Sanitary Corps Training in the Western Front, Eyewitness Notes by Col. B.K Ashford First in War, First in Peace, First at Cantigny: the 1st Sanitary Train
5A 1500-1630	Germany and the Flu Larry Lyons, Sheldon Kushner, Eduardo Calderon Derek Linton	The Spanish Flu and World War I – A Fresh Look  German Military Medicine Confronts the Second Wave of Influenza
5B	Doctors and Politicians Eric Setzekorn

1500-1630	Alan Skinner	Disease and Civil-Military Relations: Senator George Chamberlain and Criticism of the War Department A Disease That Walks By Night: The U.S. Army's Campaign to Eliminate Venereal Diseases during the Great War
6A 1630-1800	Facial Wounds John Haymond  Breanna Pritchard	The Faces of War: Traumatic Combat Wounds and Developments in Facial Reconstructive Surgical Procedures in the First World War British responses to facial wounds
6B 1630-1800	American Psychiatry William Hannigan  Peter Wever	Responses of the American Army Medical Department (AAMD) to Mental Disorders during World War 1 Tracing a war zone relic from a psychiatric collecting station in France to U.S. Veterans Hospital No. 42, Perry Point, MD
Saturday, 24 March 2018
7A 0800-0930	Beyond the Western Front Anne Samson Burcin Cakir	Medical Service in the East African Campaign Medical History of Gallipoli Campaign, 1915-1916
7B 0800-0930	Comforting the Mind Jay Boyd  Michael Doidge	Fellow Travellers: US Army Chaplains and the Medical Corps in World War One A Brain and Mind Divided: the U.S. Military Neurology and Psychiatry, Public Discourse, and the Iterative Scientific Process from World War I to the Present
8A 0930-1100	Hospitals and Disease Aaron Jackson Gregory Anstead	Experience of service at base hospitals Trench Fever: a lens on medical discovery
8B 0930-1100	Flu hits the US Kenneth Finlayson Kathleen Fargey	Flu at Camp Lee, VA Flu at Camp Meade, MD
9A 1100-1230	Trans-Atlantic Military Medicine Peter Starling  Scott Woodard	A Special Relationship - advances in surgery in the BEF and the American Influence A Yankee among the Brits: The War Experience of Major Charles Lynn
9B 1100-1230	US Navy medicine Josh Mayes Tom Snyder	Charleston Naval Hospital The Impact of the 1918 Influenza Pandemic Upon U.S. Navy Operations
Lunch 1230-1330
10A	Clinical Advances

1330-1500	Bradford Waters Anthony Kovac	Anglo-American experience with gastrointestinal infections WWI and the development of American Anesthesia
10B 1330-1500	Doctors and Patients Kevin Hymel Connie Wallace	Malcolm Grow: An American Doctor in the Czar's Army Whizz-bang suits and aeroplanes: memories of pilot medical exams from the letters of Homer Handy
11A 1500-1630	Shell Shock Sheena Eagan Rachel Heide	The Anatomy of Courage: How social ideologies shaped the story of shell-shock in the Great War The Long Road Back from the Thousand Yard Stare: The Legacy of the Great War's Treatment of Shell Shock
11B 1500-1630	European Battles and Wounds Sam Klein Ugo Pavan Dalla Torre	Medical Impacts upon Combat Action during the Battle of Verdun Handicap and Technologies in Historical Perspective: Some Notes on Prosthesis in Italy During and After World War I